EnvironmentalHallofFame.net

The National Environmental Hall of Fame, a nonprofit organization, has honored several top environmentalists and celebrities; including actors Ed Begley, Jr., Pierce Brosnan and Art Linkletter. You can now honor your mayor, sustainability director or a local environmental hero. Is there anyone from your community who you think deserves an Environmental Hall of Fame award?

Make a difference!

We believe participating as a Co-Founder of your Community Green Guide and Environmental Hall of Fame is the least expensive way to make the greatest difference and have the biggest impact to help your community move towards greater sustainability.

Receive more clients!

Individuals will want to work with you since you are helping your community "Go Green."

Receive $1,000's of publicity!

Please go to EnvironmentalHallofFame.net; then go to Guided Tour under the Resources page for a special guided tour of this opportunity. Be sure to review all 7 steps of the Guided Tour.

1. Give an award to a worthy environmentalist
2. Receive a customized *Community Green Guide with your business name on the cover
3. Receive a 2-page feature in the Community Green Guide
4. Send your 2-page feature (a mini-website) to hundreds of friends, family, prospects and the public
